DEDICATION

"Most of the luxuries, and many of the so called comforts of the life are not only not indispensable, but positive hindrances to the elevation of mankind."

— Thoreau

For your ability to reach to and communicate with us, for the motivation and inspiration you have provided, for your intellectual challenge, and for the values you have instilled in us by forcing us to discard mediocrity, we dedicate this book to you, Mr. Edward J. Kelly.

Winchester High School is a unique experience. The great diversity of ideas, activities, opportunities, and individuals always enables one to find an outlet for expression.
The individual is central. The relaxed atmosphere and flexibility of the staff is essential. Independence is granted to the student. The result: Winchester High School becomes whatever one makes it.
To some it is a time of sharing and growth.
To others it is a showcase for talent and desire.
For all it is a period of good times and lasting friendships.
The events, the ideas, the teachers, the friends, never to be forgotten.
For some they are already a happy memory and for others they are just a beginning. Together they are Winchester High '75!

To find happiness in work and play is hard to do in times today. But when you feel you’ve done your best, it’s up to fate to do the rest. We’ve had good times in years gone past, and what we’ve learned we hope will last.

In our future lies our claim, Will our work bring hardship or fame?

ABERJONA

The yearbook is a composite portrait of this year's students, teachers, sports, and activities. Hopefully, it expresses and is representative of the thoughts, feelings, and ideas evoked in many of the individuals who make up the school this year. We hope this book has captured the memories. Many thanks to those who invested their time and talents in putting the book together. Needless to say, without the help and patience of Joe Cantillon and Larry Rinaldi, the production of the yearbook would not have been possible.
And the Goon Platoon goes marching on dadada dadada dut chair!
Everyone's out of step but Johnnie.
Would you like to come to breakfast in your pajamas?
Thawing out on Thanksgiving — is there ice in your clarinette?
I've seen better beets (beats) in a garden!
Cut the tail off the Cocker Spaniel!
Definition of Sophomore — wise fool.
Does your church look like a melted Hersey's kiss?
Annual Rubber Chicken bravery in action award?
Blow through the Kazoo.
I traded my saxophone for a cow ... it makes the same sound and gives milk besides ...
Clarinet, quit whistling at the guys!
Squawks-a-phones.
Do you have black shoes on?
If you play another note like that, I'll give you a mop and bucket and you can clean it up!
Where the heck is Baker?!
Hey Marrioooo.
Ask the drum section what a sectional is?!
Go down after Ester Black; Far sharp, Car sharp.
Do bears get crocked in the woods?
Fat cows go down after eating blueberries.
Please play the scale C-flat minor, raising the 4th & 15th.
ORCHESTRA
This year's Double Sextette was a memorable one. Attendance at rehearsals was excellent — "Two people?!! Do we have to rehearse?!?" . . . "Doo doo doo doobie doobie doobie doobie doo-Dig that beat!!!" . . . "Mr. Greene, do we have to sing this song again?" . . . "All right boys and girls-ah, sorry-I mean girls!"

Our concerts kept us hopping. We were always prepared: "I thought you were bringing the robes!!" . . . During the performance: "What?!! I'm singing the solo next?!!!" . . . "What would we do without these black folders?!!!" . . . "Uh-oh, I think we're singing the wrong notes!"
Bonjour Mesdames et Messieurs nous sommes Les Troubadours! Under the forceful leadership of Mrs. “T”, this dynamic group made history among music fans everywhere. They sang at such places as “The World's Celebration”, where they were hailed by all. They spread cheer among the sick, lonely, and depressed at Christmas and bestowed their presence at a few selected functions around town. Truly astounding was the loyalty shown by members who attended every exhausting rehearsal, waiting close to five hours one day when their leader failed to show. All in all it was a demanding but fulfilling year — Troubs jive on!!
Los Companeros

Come on, let's go, it's time to start ... Where's your sombrero Dave? ... "Spanish Flea", one, two, three — play ... Not A, B Flat! ... The concert's at 8:00 group ... Late again, Michael? ... Como esta ud? ... Oh, Mrs. T., not another time ... Off to concerts we went ... Between the Spanish Club party, Hynes Auditorium, and many more things, we all found something we enjoyed. Appreciate us a little — We worked hard!!
Good Morning! WHSR-FM, 91.9 M Hz in Winchester, now begins broadcasting operations for today with Peter Vee and his “Rock and Roll Machine.” Tune in at 7:20 and if he’s awake Fred Nelson will bring you a complete concert report. At 8:00 the news team stumbles in — Beth Kennedy, John Fahey, and “Here’s the latest wetha,” Mike Goodman. It’s educational (?) programming all morning until Betty Hunter, “Makes your lunch more digestable?” At 2:00 Ozark Mark begins and is followed by a variety of rock shows up until WHSR-FM concludes broadcasting operations for the day. Also remember, WHSR brings you live, up to date coverage of WHS basketball and football, town meetings and town elections. Thank You for listening.
Don't forget practice at Manchester Field at 11:00. Breakfast at Bick's ... Line up everyone. Megaphones to march with. Left, left — right — left, Let's try to keep together. Keep smiling ... These pom poms sure fall apart after a game. Speeding through Woburn ... Yelling out windows and Chinese fire drills. What do you mean — You can't get the car next week?? It was fun, Thanks Miss Martin and PEP IT UP SACHEMS!!!
The Student Council's first course of action this year was to rewrite the Student Government Constitution. Working with the Class Officers, the student representation as a whole at Winchester High School was reconstructed, resulting in increased effectiveness and efficiency.

Led by officers Andrew deMars, Phyllis Lee, and Zoe Zerwekh, the Student Council carried out its main function of aiding in the administration of the high school, both internally and through an advisory committee to the Winchester School Committee. The variety of individuals from each grade making up the elected body provided many ideas and interests for Student Council involvement in such things as a student tutoring program, "Red-Head" Basketball game, Globe Santa, Extra-curricular Activities Survey, and American Field Service.
Last year Youth Marc became independent of the Burlington Chapter of MARC to which we were formerly affiliated. This enabled us to focus more attention on the children here in Winchester.

In addition to our numerous annual activities, we worked with other community organizations in a joint effort to provide more and better recreation for the Mentally retarded children of Winchester. Youth Marc co-sponsored a dance with the Town Recreation Committee which was a financial and social success. The profits were and will be used to develop a more extensive program.

From the Halloween Party; the Christmas Party with the Elks, the bowling outing, to the other activities we sponsored this year was ultimately one of the finest ever.

We have all put a great deal of time and energy into working with Youth Marc, and although the demands have been great the rewards have been even greater.
The Fast for World Hunger, Metco, Aiding the Elderly, the American Indian Movement, (AIM) etc., all of these programs were acted upon this year by WHS' social-political organization Action '75. This year the group directed its efforts around the fund raising for the World Hunger, and the circulation of petitions for the acceptance of Metco into the Winchester School System. On the political side, Action '75 was involved in the Boston march for Schoolwide Integration.

Action '75 has been lucky to be manned by several committed and dynamic members. Under the leadership of Robby Lepzer, (president), and the devotion of Mrs. Linda Wagner, (faculty advisor), Action '75 was able to direct its strength towards various community and world issues.
The German Club was quite active this year, (aside from the well attended meetings). We went to a German play, which no one understood — Thank God! — “Miss Rheinhart, please stop turning red!” Then off we trooped to the Wursthaus for a genuine German meal, “I’m not hungry, I’ll wait for desert.” Christmas was spent bumping to the tunes of our caroling which left much to be desired. Thanks to all, it was a great year. All the luck to next year’s dictatorship.
Paris in the spring how lovely. But how about Quebec instead? You'll love the narrow streets and the stone citadel. Best of all is the smell of French food, (mmm ...) Why wait for spring how about a dessert party to start off the yr. Sue is all for that!!!

Remember French Club need not be without culture so it's off to Boston for the Whole World Celebration, but before that a Halloween Party in the forest, with a French maid and French ghosts!!

To top it all off a party with Santa Claus and off-key carolers. Mardi Gras was never like this!!
Hola amigos:
Where's the next Spanish Club meeting going to be? Whether at a Spanish restaurant or at the Vancini's or "The Whole World Celebration," yours always BENVENIDOS.

Special thanks to Miss Alvarez and Miss Eisberg for some great times we'll never forget.
Buon Apetito!
The Italian Club is the newest and most exciting club at WHS. The Italian Club has brought the culture of Italy into WHS with such activities as an Italian Carnival held during the Holiday Season in the cafeteria, (always remember the lasagna and where's Joe?), visiting the Leonardo diVinci Ocean-Liner while in port in Boston Harbor, attending the International Fair in Boston, and having Italian Food Parties! Lead by Mrs. Miller, the club members and volunteer students contributed much imagination, co-operation, and FUN, in making the Italian Club of “75”, one club where you knew what you were missing.
Creativity, creation, reality, unreality, surreality. Which do you prefer? None? Then create your own. Existence, energy, power, light. These suit you better? Good. Or maybe not. It's up to you. Creativity, creation; these are surely gifts, but their importance and usefulness is for you to decide in your own head; that dry, pouched cavity behind your eyeballs that pumps out reality in pulsating torrent, gushing and flowing, and sometimes just trickling quietly.

What is creativity? Creativity is being able to make the stars flow out of your pen and blossom on the paper, a sparkling aurora, glowing and singing.

Images, memories, dreams, ideas. All come tumbling out in a confused stream, seeking order as they fall flat on their backs upon the paper, set in smooth lines, nudging and jostling their way out of the pen, sometimes grinding hard and quietly, and other times flowing in a gently worried stream on to the flat and white spaces. That's when it's best, when your pen is always a bit ahead of your consciousness, drinking smoothly from dark reservoirs, or sailing lightly in silent seas, penetrating darkness. Spontaneous creation, hidden eulogy, creating light.
In defiance of the immortal rule “where in ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise,” the high school does have a resident group of thinkers. This motley assortment of people, sometime known as the Philosophy Club, meets in C201 whenever they have anything to talk about which occurs surprisingly often. Under the guidance of Dr. Copeland, they are working diligently to answer the basic questions of life, (What is truth? Do I Exist? Which came first, the chicken or the egg?). Failing this, the club has seen the movie, “King of Hearts,” hear discussions on Chinese philosophy and the concept of Utopia, and held semi-regular discussion groups. Other plans include a lecture series entitled “The Quality of Life” and attending meetings of the Ethical Cultural Center in Boston. (Hopefully to meet some ethical, cultured people). In short, the Philosophy Society hopes to prove that Thomas Edison was wrong when he said “We only know one millionth percent about anything.” After all, “a hen is merely a egg’s way of making another egg.” Start Thinking!
The 1974 Cross Country team started its season very well, winning two out of its first four meets. With Seniors Dave Trageser, Captain Bruce West, Jeff Hobbs, and Tom Stevens, Juniors Bill Andrews and Paul Bosselaers, and sophomores Brian Quinn and Rich DeConto running on the varsity team, there were thoughts of a winning season at last. However, because of injuries, lack of overall depth and experience, and a few motivational problems, the remainder of the season was very disappointing for the team members. Although the final record was 2-7, the scores this year indicated an increasing competitiveness. With returning underclassmen, new recruits, hard work, and some luck, the team hopes for a successful season next year.
FIELD HOCKEY WITH CLUM'S CREW
Clum's Crew, headed by Jennifer Potts, Kate Griffin, Mary O'Connor as tri-captains and of course Miss Clum, our coach, who we couldn't have done without, had a really good season. The season's record wasn't outstanding. The varsity had 2 wins, 4 losses, 3 ties, and the J.V. had 2 wins, 3 losses, 4 ties, but we worked as a team and that's what counts. Where would we have been without those new sticks that never broke? Oh yes, how can we forget that last practice (with those laps with the somersaults, cartwheels, etc.), after which we all signed up for the gymnastics team. "Who wishes it would rain? We'll have to tell Miss Clum about this." What a way to start a day ... with breakfast at Lissie's.

Good luck to next year's co-captains. Keep your eye on those sophomores. Our thanks to Miss Clum for making the season a great one. We had a lot of fun being your first team.
Although the team record wasn’t the greatest; 2-4-3, any “B-Squader” will say we had a winning season. With Miss Rosazza as coach and Kathy McInnis, Betsy Greene and Stephanie Martin as tri-captains, this year’s B-Squad is one our opponents will never forget. There were strategic plays, involved moves and lots of team work that made us one of the most threatening teams around (flying balls, high sticks, and illegal hits added to our threat.) The season ended with a kidnap breakfast and Miss Rosazza was presented with a “living gift” as a remembrance of the 1974 B-Squad.

We’ll miss our experienced players next year; Pix, Beth, Kath, and Lou, but the show must go on!! Good Luck B-Squad.
GREAT GRIDDERS
Winchester's 1974 football team did not have the winning season it had hoped for, but its' 3-5-1 record might have been better if not for a couple of heartbreaking losses. Co-captain Peter Emery and Senior Mike Philips both made the league's all-defensive team while Co-captain Albie Cordice received honorable mention on both the offensive and defensive teams. This year's football team takes with it memories of the Watertown game, B.C.'s lurking, and of course Sam's famous HeeHee. Coach Marshall's 1975 team should be very strong under the leadership of tri-captains Mark Cullen, Don Ball, and Don Allard.
This year's soccer team had a successful season, almost achieving the 12-4 record necessary for a State Tournament berth. It all came down to the Melrose game where the emphasis was more on confrontation with the Melrose fans than the game itself. Winchester lost but still finished with an excellent 11-5 record. The season started slowly but some hard work by Coach Bouley and his team eventually paid off. Ron Vangell played some strong games in goal and the defense, led by Seniors Dave Raphael, Tom Merrow, and Paul Sullivan was surprisingly strong. Co-captain Peter Frongillo and Bill Shean were excellent at midfield and the offense led by Co-captain Tom Brennan and Seniors Tom Deshler, Fred Nelson, and Peter Mitchell was very potent. Next year's team headed by Co-captains Tom Waite and Todd Cronan hopes to equal this year's success.
SWIM ON!

The Girls Swim Team had a good time this season, maybe our 2-6 record wasn’t that great, but the enthusiasm was there! We’re looking forward to a good time again next year and hope those spastic sophomores and jumpy juniors return. Our thanks to coach Carol Rivinius for making the season a good one.

Don’t forget this: Maureen, I didn’t know you knew how to dive ... rowdies ... “pep-talks” ... I’ll bring the shampoo tomorrow ... poster party ... decorations look good? ... hey, ya know? ... where’s your spirit?
HOPPING

HOOPSTERS
This year's Basketball team had a disappointing year. The season began well with two victories but unfortunately did not continue in this manner. The team at times played very well. The high points of the year were demolishing Burlington and winning the prestigious Bay State Tournament. Returning lettermen Andy Stoeckle, Todd Cronan, and Wayne Mills should put Winchester in contention for next year's Middlesex League crown.

SO CLOSE
YET
SO FAR!
GYRATING GYMNASTS

second row: Coach S. Hood, C. Morgan, Co-Captains P. Amoroso, B. West, D. Bannister, C. Carzo, P. Richmond, T. Salemi, D. Doe, J. Girard, missing: J. Addison, T. Gattineri, R. DeConto, J. Murphy
This year's gymnastics season was a very disappointing one. With the loss of a good gymnast, and some hard luck, the team couldn't get the winning season they had hoped for. The final record was 1 win and 9 losses. Nevertheless, the team worked hard, and performed to the best of their ability. This year's team had a large turnout of sophomores who along with the remaining juniors make the team's future look hopeful.
Here we go warming up. We hear a TOOT or two a little ways across the mat. Or is it a CHOW CHOW, or those SCREEEEEAMS so loud! We're up for a good score, wish it could be more, but we only put out what practice puts in. Nevertheless, this years' girls gymnastic team had a record of 5 wins and 3 losses. As well as a skirmish with Melrose (don't give them any food) and the all time record for tears, cheers, and fears?!?!?! Ripped hands and new fans were added company. Right Lee? A tense moment — will she stick? Can we be still; there's a meet going on!! Vitty there IS a meet today. Sue's staking out again as usual. And of course special thanks to Pammy Canney whose 4:30 pick-up and dissapearing act was an inspiration to all. Thanks for a great season and good luck to next years team.
It wasn't easy playing hockey for Winchester High School during the 1974-1975 season. Handicapped right from the start by ridiculously early practice hours and having to play four more away games than home games. The Sachems hit many very high peaks and many very low valleys during the season. Included in the latter were losses to the lowly likes of Watertown, Reading, and Lexington. But, in the peaks category, there were two of the biggest Middlesex League upsets in recent years - a 3-2 squeaker over league champion, Burlington, and even bigger, an 8-4 shellacking of perennial powerhouse Melrose. The final win-loss record came in at a rather deceiving 8-9-1, but after combining that record with THE two upsets, you realize that the Sachems had a very productive and enjoyable season. Brand new head coach Dave Berman also should receive his due credit, for he took over the coaching reins this year in the least enviable position of all. But somehow, he made out pretty well with this team, and with better conditions next year, he should fare even better.
This year's track team, led by Captains Charlie Brock and Laurel Samoiloff swept through Middlesex League competition to post a 1-8 record. Thank God for Stoneham. Next year's team should be better as many outstanding juniors will be returning, among them hurdler Rich Minutoli and Rich Mauger, who this year held the Winchester record in the 300 year dash. While Coach Kline has had better years, he will undoubtedly remember playing "basketball" with Harris. And who could forget Trav's presence (or lack of it).
This year the Boys’ Swim Team had its’ best year ever after only four years of existence. With only fourteen swimmers, Head Coach Vincent Palumbo aided by Asst. Coach Allan Eyden led the Boys’ Swim Team to a remarkable undefeated season with a record of eight wins and zero losses, proving the Winchester High Boys’ Swim Team to be the best in the Western Conference.

Practicing every morning from 5:30 A.M. to 7:00 A.M., working hard to show their record for the 74-75 season, these boys and their coaches are proud to represent Winchester High School.

The team will never forget such great moments as: John Fichera’s next dive will be _____, well, let’s wait and see, Tony’s perfect one-and-a-quarter, mass rumbles in Kohr’s car, the Dunkin’ Donuts ripoff, “If I have to stop this car!”, Seth’s big secret, making deals with the Coach, Raht to toddle di rhum bay, “Tommy what lane are you in?”, “Not in my car you don’t,” John’s days off, our diving team: Moby Fish and Moby Nose, Parkhurst’s lecture at Belmont, “Where are the spectators?”, “Swim Team? I didn’t know we had a Swim Team!”, and Roy the swimming weasel, “WE’RE NUMBER ONE!”
Benton’s Behemoths

The High School wrestling team ended their short season 4-5 this year. It is unfortunate that they had 4 less duel meets than last year because the team really didn’t come along until the end of the season, winning 4 out of their last 5 meets.

Let by Captain Steve Johnis, and Co-Captains George McHugh and Ed Neves, there were several highlights to the season. An undefeated season for John Calarese was one of these. A few others were Frank Smedley wrestling Mr. Larocco’s son at the Reading meet, George McHugh’s Billericia opponent attempting an exchange of fists during their match, John McIsaac’s Belmont opponent running off the mat for a drink of water between periods, and an excellent first year record of 7-2 for Mike Cavaretta.
CHEER LEADERS

first row: Peggy Langley, Coleen Fitzpatrick, Co-Captains Corrine D’Onofrio and Tonya Buros, Crissy Blakely, Evie Twombly, second row: Hope Stavros, Renee George, Mary Ann Beaton, Judy Dayton, Cindy Vita, and Dawn Nunziato
Shina moon! Semor-r, Scrumpt, Scott! Sammy bud, Stranded at Woba skating rink, worms, kidnapping, proned, prunes, 2-2-2! "success or get ready??"
Articles in the Star! "Ever have a feeling you were going to die?" "I love it and it hasn't begun yet!", "Let's vote on it!", Sachem beat-"belt it out you guys!"
Chinese fire drills, China Moon, Coach Moon, Coach Français, Pom-Pom Cheer, Cindy's dentist appointments.

Stogies (Buddy), Butt of course we'll win!, Gumba, Waiting at Friendlies, Burning Pom-Pom's, Bake Sale, ishka-bidoli, livingroom dancing.

Hey Coach, Want to put down any bets?

Would I kid you?
Watch carefully Jon, your turn is next.

Aw, give me a break ref.
